Join us September 26-28 for a Design Science Symposium and Maker's Fair at RISD

Organized by the Fleet Library and the Loeb Fellowship Advisory Group, Geometry of Uncertainty is an interactive meeting of makers, thinkers, and educators interested in spatial phenomena, complex systems, and nature-inspired design. The program features keynote presentations by Janet Echelman, Peter Lynch, and Joseph Cambray.

For more information and a complete schedule visit: <https://designscience.risd.edu/>

The symposium is open to the public and free of charge, but registration is required. Register here by 9/9 to secure your spot.

We hope to see you there!
